FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Last Day of the Session—Farewell Address of Speaker Graham of the Senate—Election of a New Speaker—Thanks to Speaker Davis of the House—Presentations—Adjournment Sine Die.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, April 14, 1868.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock this A. M.

After the usual closing scenes and proceedings Speaker GRAHAM said:

Senators—Before vacating the chair and handing the gavel over to my honored friend and successor, allow me to tender my sincere acknowledgments to every member of the Senate for the uniform courtesy, forbearance and support which I have received from you. I shall cherish the remembrance of your kindness and friendship, until life's latest hour. When I assumed the duties of the Chair I promised to discharge them impartially, fearlessly, formally, yet kindly. I have endeavored to redeem the pledge, and if in the discharge of my duty as your presiding officer I have wounded or given offence to any, it was unintentional, and I earnestly ask to be forgiven. This hour dismisses us from legislative labors to the repose and sweets of private life. The thought of soon again meeting with and enjoying the society of loved ones at home, dispels, in a measure, the sadness which always gathers around the last moments of a session, when we bid each other adieu, with the thought that in all human probability it is forever. I resign the trust you have committed to my hands with the consciousness that I have devoted my best efforts to the discharge of its duties, however imperfectly I may have succeeded.

And now, brother Senators, in bidding you an affectionate farewell, permit me once more to cordially thank you for your uniform kindness and courtesy, and accept the assurance that you bear with you my earnest prayers for your individual prosperity and happiness.

Mr. WILMER WORTHINGTON, of Chester, was then elected as the successor of Mr. Graham, by a strict party vote.

Speaker WORTHINGTON thanked the Senate in a brief speech.

Resolutions of thanks to Speaker Graham, Chief Clerk Hamersley, Messrs. Rogers and Braggins, Assistant Clerks, and to Chaplain Baily, were passed unanimously.

At twelve o'clock the Senate adjourned sine die.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House met at ten.

Mr. SUBERS, of Philadelphia, offered a resolution authorizing the purchase of a large flag for public buildings. Adopted.

The usual Committees were appointed to wait on the Senate and Governor.

The standing Committees were discharged from the consideration of all bills.

Mr. NICE, Dem., of Schuylkill, offered a resolution of thanks to Speaker Davis, (Mr. Mann, of Potter, being in the chair,) which was passed unanimously.

Mr. MANN, addressing Speaker Davis, said:

I have the pleasure of notifying you of the adoption of a vote of thanks for your uniform kindness and impartiality in presiding over us, by a unanimous vote of the House. It has been your fortune so to constitute Committees of the House as to advance the passage of a free railroad bill, which has been the desire of the people of Pennsylvania. I do not say that this bill is all the people expect, but I do say that it is great progress in the right direction, and that this progress is owing in a great part to your organization of the Committee on Railroads, placing at its head a gentleman known to all as being heartily and zealously in favor of this great measure of reform. In addition to this, under your administration laws have been passed affecting and regulating the licensing of foreign insurance companies, and taxing all corporations of the State, and codification of enrolment laws, and requiring of Telegraph companies to make annual reports. All this has tended to lessen the labors of the financial officers of the State, and will inevitably bring into its coffers considerable additional revenue, without imposing additional taxation upon corporations that were taxed.

Resolutions of thanks to the Chief Clerk, General Selfridge, assistant clerk, Edward G. Lee, resident clerk, John A. Smull, librarian, Wm Cooper, and the officers of the House, passed unanimously.

Mr. WILSON, of Allegheny, on behalf of the Republican members of the House, presented to the estimable lady of Speaker Davis a large and valuable china tea set.

Mr. JONES, of Berks, on the part of the Democratic members, presented Speaker Davis with a gold watch.

Mr. HERR, of Dauphin, on behalf of the House, presented Speaker Davis with a heavy gold watch chain.

Mr. McCULLOUGH, of Clearfield, on behalf of the Chief Clerk, presented Speaker Davis with a beautiful gavel.

Mr. LINTON, of Cambria, on the part of members without distinction of party, presented Gen. Jas. L. Selfridge, Chief Clerk, with a gold watch.

Mr. THORN, of Philadelphia, on behalf of the page boys of the House, presented to General Selfridge a gold headed cane.

Assistant clerk Lee, and resident clerk Smull, each received gold headed canes.

Speaker DAVIS made a brief farewell speech, profoundly thanking the members for their kind regards.

At 12 o'clock the House adjourned sine die singing "Auld Lang Syne."

—The Erie railway cases were up yesterday in the Common Pleas Court of New York city. Judge Barnett dismissed the charge of contempt against Hamilton Harris and issued an order directing Jay Gould to appear on Saturday. Testimony was resumed before the Referee, Haskin, in the charge of contempt against D. C. Brancroft Davis, one of the Erie directors, in assisting in the issue of ten millions of Erie stock; but the examination was not finished.

—Mr. William Summerfield has been nominated for a member of the Board of Education in West Chester, New York, both by the Republicans and Democrats.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

The Impeachment Trial—Illness of Mr. Stanbery—Adjournment Till Wednesday — Legislative Business—Printing of Impeachment Report.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 14, 1868.

SENATE.

Court was opened in due form.

Mr. SUMNER offered the following order:

Ordered, that in answer to the motion of the Managers, in reference to the limiting of the final argument, unless otherwise ordered, that such other Managers and counsel as choose may print and file their remarks at any time on the closing of the argument.

CHIEF JUSTICE—If there be no objection it will be so ordered.

Mr. CONNESS—I object.

Mr. SUMNER—I would respectfully ask under what rule such objection can be made?

The CHIEF JUSTICE replied that on several occasions he had decided the rules of the Senate to be the rules of the Court as far as applicable.

Mr. SUMNER—Of course, it is not for me to argue the question, but I beg leave to remind the Chair of the rule under which this order was made.

CHIEF JUSTICE—It will lie over. The counsel for the President will proceed with the defense.

Mr. EVARTS said that it was the misfortune of the President's counsel to be obliged to state to the Court that since the adjournment yesterday Mr. Stanbery had been seized with an illness that prevented his attendance this morning. He (Mr. Evarts) had seen Mr. Stanbery this morning and learned that, in the opinion of the physician, he would undoubtedly be able to resume his duties within forty-eight hours. There might be some hope he could do so to-morrow. In view of the suddenness of the occurrence, and their arrangements in regard to the proofs, it would be very difficult, almost impossible, with any propriety, with proper attention to the case, to proceed to-day, and they supposed an indulgence, at least for to-day, would lessen the chances of longer procrastination. The Senate would bear in mind that much of their proposed evidence was within the present knowledge of Mr. Stanbery, and not within that of his associates. It was, of course, unpleasant to them to introduce these personal considerations, but in their best judgment it was necessary to submit the motion to the discretion of the Senate, whether the indulgence should be limited to this day or extended to a time necessary for the restoration of Mr. Stanbery, whom he had seen last evening, and supposed he would be able to go on this morning as usual, as did Mr. Stanbery himself. He had only learned this morning that Mr. Stanbery would be confined to his room by direction of his physician.

Senator DRAKE sent the following to the chair, and it was read:

"Cannot this day be occupied by the counsel for the respondent in giving in documentary evidedce."

Mr. EVARTS—It cannot, as we understand the nature and condition of the proofs.

On motion of Senator HOWE, the Senate, sitting as a Court, adjourned until to-morrow at 12 o'clock—Messrs Sumner and Pomeroy only voting no.

The President resumed the chair and called the Senate to order.

Mr. DAVIS gave notice he would move the following additional rule to the rules of practice and proceedings in cases of impeachment:

Two-thirds of the Senate present shall be necessary to rule on any question of evidence or law against the party impeached.

Mr. ANTHONY, from the Committee on Printing, reported favorably a resolution to print five thousand additional copies of the report of the impeachment trial, which, on his motion, the Senate proceeded to consider.

Mr. SHERMAN asked where these documents were being printed?

Mr. ANTHONY—At the Government printing office.

Mr. SHERMAN referred to the immense expense of printing, especially in connection with the Congressional Globe, where this report was printed, and of which additional copies could be prepared at a much less expense. He inquired what the expense would be?

Mr. ANTHONY replied, probably about $10,000.

Mr. SHERMAN thought it time to stop the waste of money in the distribution of documents to their constituents, who could buy them at the bookstores, if they wanted them.

Mr. BUCKALEW moved to add the following as an amendment. "and the distribution of the same to Senators shall be in accordance with the population of the States respectively."

Mr. ANTHONY denied that the expenses of Congressional printing had increased, and claimed they are not as much now in greenbacks as before the war in gold.

Mr. HENDRICKS thought from an examination he made last session the Senator was mistaken; that expenses had greatly increased. If desirable the circulation of reports of this trial would be much subserved by admitting the reporter of the Associated Press to a seat on the floor, as it had been proposed, without any expense to the country. Five thousand copies would add considerably to the expense of printing and give a very small additional circulation.

Mr. ANTHONY asked if the Senator had figures to show the increase he claimed?

Mr. HENDRICKS could not recollect them, but thought they showed the increase to be nearly double.

Mr. ANTHONY—The Senator is mistaken.

Messrs. Davis, Bayard and Johnson opposed the amendment, the latter arguing that equal representation of the States in this body has been the means of preserving the Union to this time. It has operated as a check on other branches. He was opposed to any proposition recognizing inequality in this chamber.

Mr. CRAGIN endorsed the statement of Mr. Anthony in regard to the comparative expenses of printing, speaking from his experience as a member of the Committee on Printing of the other House some years ago.

Mr. CONNESS was in favor of the resolution. He thought the documents should be sent to the Public Libraries.

Mr. YATES thought all the States were equal. He wished the people were. Enough of these documents, in his opinion, had been already ordered.

Mr. MORTON denied the amendment recognized any inequality in representation. He thought he recognized the inequality of population, which had been recognized in other ways. A strong feeling was growing up with which he did not sympathize, against the injustice of allowing Delaware, with one hundred thousand inhabitants the same representation on this floor as New York with a million, and it was growing stronger every day.

Mr. BUCKALEW thought the criticism made on his amendment uncalled for. It merely proposed an equitable distribution among the people.

The amendment was rejected.

The resolution was then adopted.

Mr. CONNESS offered a resolution, which was adopted, asking the President for copies of any papers in the Department of State relating to any application for exclusive privileges to private parties and companies in connection with the purchase of lands in our recent purchase from Russia, and for information relative to any acts done in relation thereto. He explained that a report to that effect had created considerable feeling in San Francisco.

On motion of Mr. MORTON, at 1:30, the Senate went into Executive session, and subsequently adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Leave of absence was granted to several members.

Mr. PERHAM, from the Committee on Pensions, reported a bill relating to pensions as committed.

Mr. TABER presented a memorial of Henry Clews & Co., Rufus Hatch & Co., and other merchants and capitalists of New York, in favor of the National Railroad between Washington and New York. Referred to the Committee on Roads and Canals.

Mr. WASHBURNE, Ills., offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for a report of Freeman H. Morse, United States Consul at London, on the Mercantile Marine and Commerce policy of Great Britian, and also for a copy of a dispatch from Mr. Morse, dated May 12th, 1866. Adopted.

The SPEAKER presented an address of members of the Chamber of Commerce of Geneva and Swiss citizens, complimenting the United States on the abolition of slavery.

The SPEAKER also presented a communication from the Navy Department, in reply to Mr. Washburne's resolution of some days since, in reference to the steamship Atlantic. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

The House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole and proceeded to the Senate Chamber, from which it soon returned.

At half-past 12, adjourned.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK A. M.

THE CAPITAL.

Sergeant Bates and the Flag—Speech of Mr. Eldridge—Lincoln Monument Dedication—Patent Matters—Savings Banks Statistics—Land Office, &c., &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 14, 1868.

SERGEANT BATES, THE PEDESTRIAN.

Sergeant Bates, the pedestrian, carrying the United States flag, arrived here this forenoon, and was met at the Long Bridge by a committee of citizens and escorted by a large crowd to the Executive Mansion. He was met at the portico by President Johnson, who invited him into the East Room and there gave him a hearty welcome. No speech-making was indulged in, the occasion being totally devoid of formality. After a few moments' conversation the Sergeant, accompanied by a large concourse, left on a line of march down Pennsylvania avenue.

SPEECH OF MR. ELDRIDGE, OF WISCONSIN.

Sergeant Bates proceeded to the Metropolitan Hotel and having ascended to the portico, Hon. Chas. A. Eldridge delivered the following address:

Fellow Citizens: It is owing to the fact that I am a citizen of Wisconsin that I have been invited to appear here on this occasion, and for a few brief moments to present to you the guest of Washington, the youthful son of the State of Wisconsin, Sergeant Bates. (Cheers.) He, finding a popular error existing in the State of Wisconsin, like that in every northern State, to wit: that the people of the Southern States, whom our conquering arms subdued, were hostile to the flag, undertook to carry it from Vicksburg to Washington for the purpose of planting it on the dome of the Capitol. He has demonstrated to the people of this country, and the world, that no such hostility exists, but on the contrary that the people of the South submit to the flag of the Union in good faith, and are determined to maintain their allegiance to it, and expect us of the North to maintain ours. (Applause.) I understand that Sergeant Bates will now proceed to place the flag on the dome of the Capitol. But I will no longer detain you in this rain storm, further than to say, I cannot forget the day, now just seven years, when our flag was lowered in humility and sorrow from the battlements of Fort Sumter, and rejoice that it arises in triumph and glory.

FLAG NOT PLACED ON THE DOME.

Mr. Michler, Superintendent of Public Buildings, to place the flag on the dome sent an order to Mr. Brown, by a policeman, and Mr. Brown endorsed it, giving the required permission. The paper was then handed to the policeman in charge of the door, who would not let Sergeant Bates pass into the Capitol without the further endorsement of the Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. Ordway, of the House of Representatives. Not waiting longer, and tired of delay, Sergeant Bates, with his friends, left the Capitol to plant the flag on the Washington Monument. Sergeant Bates was escorted to the Hotel, the proprietor of which entertained him gratuitously.

LINCOLN MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.

The dedication of the Lincoln monument, erected by the citizens of Washington in front of City Hall, will take place to-morrow. The monument will be unveiled by the President, and dedicated by the Masonic fraternity of the District.

His eldest son is Viscount Cranbourne, member of the House of Commons, for Stamford, who succeeds to the titles and estates of the late Marquis. The quays and public buildings are lavishly ornamented with flags, streamers, mottoes and other decorations, and beautiful triumphal arches have been erected in the principal streets through which the royal visitors will pass. The people of the surrounding country are pouring into the city, and crowds of visitors are hourly arriving from England to witness the ceremonies and participate in the festivities of the reception,

LONDON, April 14.—A telegram from Lisbon announces the arrival of the steamer from South America, with dates from Rio Janeria to the 24th ult. The dispatch states that she brings no war news from Brazil. This leads to the impression that the recent movements of the Allies on the Rio Parana have not resulted so favorably as the Brazillians expected.

FRANCE.

THE WAR RUMORS.

PARIS, April 14.—The Journal Debats, in an editorial article to-day, scouts the apprehensions which have been raised of approaching war, and particularly denies that there is any danger of war with Germany. Under favorable advices from Manchester the sales of to-day were 12,000 bales. Breadstuffs—Corn declined 3d. and quoted at 20s. 3d. Wheat steady at 16s. for white California; 14s. 3d. for red Western. Barley, 5s. 1d. Oats, 4s. Peas, 47s. Flour, 37s. Provisions closed unchanged. Beef, 125s. Pork, 85s. Lard, 61s. 3d. Cheese. 53s. Bacon, 47s. 6d. Produce—Sugar steady at 26s. 6d. Tallow, 45s. 6d. Petroleum, 1s. 3d. for refined; 10d. for spirits.

The London Marklane Express, received per City of Paris, says: It is now very doubtful whether the season will prove earlier than usual. Prices of wheat have little altered, as the foreign supplies have been liberal, but there is little doubt that had it not been for France prices would have been rather lower. Although some of the interior markets of France have rather cheapened, Marseilles has advanced, and, therefore, since August, English receipts in wheat and flour have averaged 73,000 quarters per month, whereas in the remaining five months before harvest England will want about 9,000,000 quarters per month. So this year an early or late harvest becomes a serious matter.

SECRETARY STANTON.

Letter to Senator Cameron—He Declines Further Public Service.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The following letter was addressed by Secretary Stanton to Senator Cameron to-day:

War Department, Washington, April 14.—To Hon. SIMON CAMERON—Dear Sir: Perceiving in this morning's Chronicle that a communication has been signed by the Governor of your State, and Republican members of the Legislature, and other persons, asking your recommendation for my transfer, upon a certain contingency, to the head of the Treasury Department, I hasten to request earnestly that no such recommendation be made. Enough of my life has been devoted to public duties. No consideration can induce me to assume those of the Treasury Department, or continue in the War Department longer than may be required for the appointment of my successor.

Yours, truly,

[Signed,] EDWIN M STANTON.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

In the bankruptcy branch, Wm. Maher, President of the First National Bank of Blairsville, filed a petition in bankruptcy against A. S. Miller, of Lockport, Indiana county. The petitioning creditor avers that Miller is indebted to him in the sum of $4,000 in the shape of promissory notes, and that he has left the State and District with a view of defrauding his creditors. A rule to show why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted was issued, and made returnable on the fourth day of May.

Final discharges were granted and certificates awarded to Peter G. Walker and Jos. Palmer of Tioga county.

F. H. Wood, of Tioga county, and John Bergly, of Crawford county, filed petitions for final discharge. The usual order was read.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

John Barry vs. John Carrol. The plaintiff owns a house and lot on Chestnut street, Eighth Ward, and the defendant owns the adjoining house and lot. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant failed to grade his lot, and that the wash water from the kitchen and hydrant, as well as the surface water, had been allowed to soak down and against the foundation walls of plaintiff's house, damaging them to a considerable extent. The action was brought to recover for the damage sustained. Verdict for $165 18.

Hugh Wallace vs. Administrators of estate of James Sproul. Action on book account. On trial.

Following is the trial list for to-day:

132. Charles Sill vs. J. B. Williams.
134. Geo. D. McGrew vs. Wm. Clayton.
116. Mary Ann Daly vs. Jas. Mellinger.
141. Alex. McClure et al vs. Geo. Smith.
119. Henry Evans vs. Henry Kamphaus.
143. James Clegg et al., owners of steam tug "Mary Davage," vs. A. J. Baker.
146. Sharp, Davis & Bonsall vs. Murphy & Shutterly.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Lewis Davis, indicted for the larceny of an order on the City Treasury, reported yesterday, the jury found a verdict of guilty.

The jury in the case of Henry Hall, indicted for the larceny of three pairs of boots, the property of E. S. Gray, of East Liberty, returned a verdict of guilty.

Jacob Foreman was placed on trial on an indictment charging him with obtaining a quantity of lumber, valued at two hundred and twenty-nine dollars, under false representations. Mr. J. B. Hlll, lumber merchant, the prosecuting witness, testified that in the latter part of November, 1866, the defendant came to his planing mill, in the Ninth ward of this city, and bought the bill of lumber, obtaining the same on credit by representing that he owned real estate in Allegheny city. There was a balance due on the bill of $139 81. The witness stated that after searching the records, and failing to discover that the defendant owned any real estate, he instituted criminal proceedings before Alderman McMasters.

The defense claimed that the defendant had said, when he procured the lumber, that "he had a home in Allegheny," and not that he owned real estate there. Furthermore, that he did not make the representations charged in the indictment with fraudulent intent. It appeared that Mr. Foreman did at one time own real estate in Allegheny, but that he some time ago transferred the same to members of his family, and now he owned but a life interest therein. A large number of witnesses were called, who established for the defendant a good character for honesty.

Judge Mellon charged the jury that in order to convict under the indictment they must believe that false representations were made by the defendant with the intention of defrauding the prosecutor, and that the prosecutor was induced, by the false representations alleged, to give the defendant the bill of lumber on credit. The jury would take into consideration the good character of the defendant, if they believed it had been successfully established, and let it have its due weight when deliberating upon their verdict. If they entertained a reasonable doubt as to the defendant's guilt, that doubt should result in his acquittal. Jury out.

J. P. McCullough and John Matthews were placed on trial for assault and battery upon George Bingard and John Bingard. The parties are all coal miners, and the defendants worked at mines on the Monongahela, near Bixley's, at Beck's run. The miners in that region were out on a strike, and the Bingards, who are Germans, and who lately came to this country, went to work at reduced wages. This excited against them hard feelings on the part of the strikers, who frequently insulted and abused them. On the night of March 28th, while the Germans were going home from their work, they were assailed and pelted with stones by a party of five or six men. With the aid of the lighted lamps which they carried, the Bingers were enable each to recognize a man, one of whom was McCullough and the other Matthews, the defendants on trial.

George and John Bingard were each in turn called to the witness stand, and testified through an interpreter to the facts above stated.

Mr. McCutcheon, a manager of coal works in the vicinity of Beck's run, testified that the defendants were troublesome men during the strike; that they had called the Bingard's "black sheep," and applied to them other opprobrious epithets, calculated to produce disturbances. The case was not concluded.

Andrew Gable, who beats and abuses his wife and children quite frequently, and who has been in jail for about nine months for such conduct, was discharged by the Court on his own recognizance. His family has removed from this city to Butler, and it was thought he would not persecute them further.

LINES TO A SKELETON.

[Fifty years ago the London Morning Chronicle published a poem entitled "Lines to a Skeleton," which excited much attention. Every effort, even to the offering of a reward of fifty guineas, was vainly made to discover the author. All that ever transpired was, that the poem, in a fair, clerkly hand, was found near a skeleton of remarkable beauty of form and color, in the museum of the Royal College of Surgeons, Lincoln's Inn, and that the curator of the Museum had them sent to Mr. Perry, of the Morning Chronicle.]

Behold this ruin! 'Twas a skull,
Once of ethereal spirit full;
This narrow cell was life's retreat,
This space was thought's mysterious seat:
What beauteous vision filled this spot!
What dreams of pleasure long forgot!
Nor hope, nor joy, nor love, nor fear,
Have left one trace of record here.

Beneath this moldering canopy
Once shone the bright and busy eye:
But start not at the dismal void
If social love that eye employed—
If with no lawless fire it gleamed,
But through the dew of kindness beamed—
That eye shall be forever bright,
When sun and stars are sunk in night.

Within this hollow cavern hung
The ready, swift and tuneful tongue.
If falsehood's honey it disdained;
And when it could not praise was chained;
If bold in virtue's cause it spoke,
Yet gentle concord never broke,
This silent tongue shall plead for thee,
When time unveils eternity.

Say, did those fingers delve the mine?
Or with its envied rubies shine?
To hew the rock or wear the gem
Can little now avail to them.
But if the page of truth they sought,
Or comfort to the mourner brought,
These hands a richer meed shall claim
Than all that wait on wealth or fame.

Avails it whether bare or shod,
These feet the path of duty trod?
If from the halls of ease they fled
To seek affliction's humble shed;
If grandeur's guilty bribe they spurned,
And home to virtue's cot returned,
These feet with angel's wings shall vie,
And tread the palace of the sky.

—The beautiful murderess, Baroness Ebergenyi, now in jail in Vienna, was recently caught bribing one of the keepers to take a letter from her to her relatives. For this attempt to violate the prison rules, she was sentenced to forty-eight hours in the dark cell, on water and bread. Up to that time, she had always maintained the most surprising self-possession, but when she was taken to the dark cell, and saw the straw on which she was to lie for two days, she burst into a violent fit of weeping and sobbing, and then, getting desperate, she resisted the jailors, who finally, after tearing her whole dress, hurled her head-long into the cell. Only five months since, she was still admitted to the most aristocratic circles, and generally admired for her beauty and grace.

In Adams county, Iowa, they have a colony of those queer birds, the Icarians. They have over 1,700 acres of fine land, and a saw and grist mill. Their residences form a little village of separate log houses, but cooking, eating, washing, etc., are done in a large building, centrally situated. The community has thirty-six members—sixteen men, nine women, and seven youths and children, nearly all of whom are French. They do not interfere with the marriage relation, nor with political or religious opinions; but when a member joins he gives to the community all his money and other property that may be suitable for common use, on condition that, in case he should withdraw, the community shall pay back the exact amount, without interest, which he put in. They are regularly incorporated under the State laws, and are represented to be in a reasonably properous condition.

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers rose steadily all day yesterday and last evening, there were thirteen feet in the Monongahela and thirteen and a half in the Allegheny. The weather has moderated considerably, and we had considerable rain during the day, with every appearance of a continuance of it.

The following towboats left for Louisville yesterday:

	Boats.	Barges.	Bushels.
Star	...	6	60,000
Bengal Tiger	1	6	90,000
Warner	...	6	60,000
John F. Dravo	5	2	120,000
Total	8	20	330,000

The Julia No. 2 departed for Zanesville, and the Bayard cleared for Parkersburg. The Ida Rees No. 2 left for Oil City, and the Echo is due here from there to-day.

A Jamestown, N.Y., telegram says: The weather is cloudy and cold, with a southwest wind. The river is falling slowly. Rafts got off yesterday all right. At Tideoute the stage of water is forty inches and falling. At Oleopolis the river has five feet eight inches and falling slowly.

The arrivals include the America, from Cincinnati, and the St. Mary's, from Wheeling. The latter is a fine looking side-wheeler, and, we judge from her appearance that she is a big carrier.

The Argosy, Capt. Vandergrift, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving promptly at noon, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. The R. C. Gray, Captain Anderson, is filling up steadily, and will be the first boat out for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Importer, Capt. Williams, positively takes her departure for Fort Benton this evening. She is in tip-top condition, looking as well almost as she did when she was new. The Silver Lake, Capt. Todd, will follow the Importer, leaving on Friday.

The Bellevernon, Capt. J. J. Darragh, Jr. is announced to leave for St. Louis this evening, and we hope she will receive as deserves, a good trip. She will receipt through on the Upper Mississippi to Saint Paul, in connection with the Northern Line Packet Co.

The Messenger left St. Louis for St. Paul on Saturday, and the Glendale left the same day for Pittsburgh. The Andrew Ackley was to have left on Monday for Fort Benton,

The Ezra Porter continues in the New Orleans and Red River trade, albeit reports at New Orleans to the contrary.

The St. Louis Republican, referring to a recent quick trip of the Quickstep, says: The Quickstep is provided with the "Moderator" engines, the same as the Great Republic, and has, from the first, fully proved the correctness of the theory on which they are constructed, and the like result has been reached on the Great Republic, which is now generally conceded to be the fastest steamer with a load that floats, and only awaits a fair show, without a cargo, to prove herself the fastest boat that ever floated on the Mississippi or its tributaries.

The New State left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday, and the St. Charles would follow on Monday. The Armadillo was to have left there for St. Louis on Sunday.

The towboat Grand Lake passed Evansville on her way to Pittsburgh on Saturday without a tow.

The New York arrived at Louisville from Pittsburgh on Saturday.

The Belle Lee arrived at Cairo on Saturday, claiming to have been three days and eighteen hours out from New Orleans. She had broken a wheel in the drift. The officers of the Belle Lee say that she and the R. E. Lee did not leave New Orleans together.

The river is "cutting away" on the Louisiana side at Vicksburg, below where the Grant canal was dug, which latter is filling up, and the former threatens to leave the Hill City still farther out of water.

The Alice V. passed Cincinnati on Sunday en route for Pittsburgh with six hundred tons of iron ore.

The M. V. T. Company's steamer Mohawk, for New Orleans, had in tow barges loaded with the following articles, viz: Corn, 7745 sacks, 36,538 bushels, in bulk; flour, 6043 bbls; lard, 75 tierces; oats, 12,832 bushels; pork, 760 bbls. Of this 1100 bbls flour, 1809 sacks and the bulk corn, and 422 sacks oats were for shipment to New York. The aggregate of the cargo is 2,487 tons.

During the past winter, 5000 overhanging trees have been cut down on the banks of the Minnesota, in the work of improving and protecting navigation. The work was done by Captain Bell and fourteen men. The work commenced at Mankato, and the party worked from there down to the rapids. They then returned to the mouth of the Blue Earth, and worked up to the head of the first bend above South Bend; then came back to Blue Earth and worked up to Red Jacket mills. All old trees within the banks of the river were cut up into such a shape that the spring floods would carry them off, and the roots were trimmed from large stumps for the same purpose. All the trees growing upon bars were cut down. The men slept in a large tent, which did not contain a drop of intoxicating liquor, and none whatever was used, and yet they are all reported in magnificent health.

Mr. A. E. Mann, who was building the mountain steamer El Paso at Cincinnati, died at Tiffin, Ohio, on Thursday.

George Clarke, formerly pilot of the Gen. Anderson, was shot and killed one day last week, at Cottonwood Point, Missouri.

The Evansville Journal, of Saturday, says: Capt. J. B. Hall, of the Tennessee, has been in the city all the week, and will return to Cairo to-day by the Armada, where his boat has been undergoing repairs. He proposes to place the Tennessee in the Evansville and Cincinnati trade, leaving here every Tuesday.

A Memphis paper of the 10th has the following: The Memphis and Little Rock packet Florence Traber, in command of Capt. Rube Haines, bound from Dardanelle to Memphis, struck a snag at Collin's Shoal 130 miles above Little Rock on Wednesday, and sunk in nine feet water. She is badly broken and will prove a total loss. The Florence Traber struck a snag and sunk, below Little Rock, in February, was raised and repaired, and was on her third trip again when she met with the accident. The Alice, which sunk near Monroe, La., a few days ago, was recently purchased for the sum of $6000 by Capt. Jordon Taylor. The accident occurred just above the mouth of the Bayou De Siard.

The New Orleans Times, of the 8th, says: Regarding the time of the fast packets R. E. Lee and Belle Lee, which left here Tuesday last, we promised our readers that we would give it when received. We did not receive anything from the Belle Lee, but of the Robert E. Lee we did the following dispatch, which was received yesterday by Messrs. Kennett & Bell and Geo. D. Hite, which speaks for itself; "Natchez, April 8—Steamer Robt. E. Lee, from New Orleans to Natchez in 19 hours and 19 minutes; made seven landings and took on 77 cords of wood. Belle Lee 2 hours and 5 minutes behind. R. Holmes." The above time, considering the river bank full and a fearful current to contend against, is extraordinary.

SECURITY AND COMFORT FOR THE TRAVELING COMMUNITY.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 138½.

THE State Legislature adjourned yesterday after the interchange of friendly compliments and congratulations between the members.

IT IS NOT likely that our iron boilers will precipitate themselves again into the folly of a strike. They have learned through bitter experience that it is much easier to accomplish objects by retaining their situations and effecting compromises based on justice with employers, than to undergo the hardships of a long continued lockout.

DR. WILMER WORTHINGTON has been elected Speaker of the State Senate; a very excellent choice. In retiring from that position Senator GRAHAM carries with him the respect and confidence of all the members, without distinction of party. He filled the office with credit and distinction, and by his fair and manly course on all occasions added vastly to the high character as a gentleman he has ever enjoyed amongst those who best know him.

SERGEANT BATES, who has accomplished the feat of carrying the flag of his country from a remote point in the South to the capital of the nation, yesterday received a public reception in Washington from the Democrats. The members of that party are not so willing to honor the brave men who carried that same old flag triumphantly, though not untorn, to the remotest corner of the so-called Confederacy, during the progress of the rebellion.

THE City Attorney has given his opinion that the veto by Mayor BLACKMORE of the ordinance recently passed by Councils providing for the widening of the Fifth street pavements was delivered too late, and that the ordinance holds good. This is substantially the same view we took of the case several days ago, and Councils yesterday guided their action in accordance with it. We presume the contract for the widening of the pavements will at once be given out, in order that the improvement may be made simultaneously with the laying of the Nicolson blocks.

MR. STANTON has met the recommendation forwarded by the leading Republicans of Pennsylvania, in view of a certain contingency for his elevation to the head of the Treasury Department in Mr. WADE'S cabinet, with a peremptory refusal longer to serve the public in any capacity. He further gives out that he will only retain his office in the War Department until such time as a proper successor may be appointed and confirmed. No man has served the country more faithfully than Mr. STANTON, and it is a matter of much regret that he has decided on retiring from public life.

OWING to the sudden and unexpected illness of Mr. STANBERY, of counsel for the President, the Impeachment Court adjourned over yesterday, with out taking any new testimony. In the Senate quite an animated debate followed the introduction of a resolution calling for the publication of five thousand extra copies of the report of the impeachment trial, some of the Senators having suddenly developed a spirit of economy. The resolution was adopted. We believe in retrenchment, but it was a bad point at which to make a commencement, as too many copies of that important document cannot he circulated throughout the country.

YESTERDAY, in City Councils, an resolution was passed providing for the laying of three and a half miles of water pipes in Lawrenceville, one and a half in Pitt township, one and a half in Oakland, and three thousand seven huudred feet in the old city district, or in the aggregate nearly seven miles of new pipe. In addition to this the sum of $28,000 was appropiated towards repairing the upper and lower water works. The entire cost of these improvements will approximate $180,000, all of which will come out of the proceeds of the recent water loan. Should that city security be taken rapidly enough, this expenditure will be increased, as it is proposed to extend water facilities into all the new districts. This is the first fruits of consolidation, and when our City Councils make a few more liberal and enterprising steps towards improvement, there will be less wild talk about retrogression.

AN ALARMING INFLUX.

One of the most distressing and alarming consequences following in the train of the late rebellion is now manifesting itself in a fearful way throughout the entire country, and, if not properly met and checked, will lead to the destruction of many, and tend to damage the agricultural interests of the nation. We refer to the decided aversion to farm labor which has taken possession of young men in the rural districts, who have been reared holding the handles of the plow in their hands and who were rightly taught that theirs' was an all important mission in this world. It is not strange that this spirit so widely prevails, nor is it wrong to charge its existence to the account of the recent rebellion. During the dark days of sanguinary war, tens and hundreds of thousands of young men were enlisted or drafted into the army, taken from the smiling farms where they enjoyed peace, contentment and quiet, and huried into the giddy excitement and varying emotions of a campaigner's life. Their minds underwent a slow, steady, certain change. In the heat of battle, the activity of the march, the idleness of camp life, they forgot the charms lingering about the old farm, and were amazed that they had lived so long in glorious indifference to the bustling, busy, active, noisy and turbulent world beyond the narrow limits of their smiling fields and prolific orchards. Standing shoulder to shoulder with the more elegant and polished soldier from the city, sharing his fare and enjoying his companionship, they lost their own identity, forgot that theirs, in time of peace, was the noblest of all callings, and formed an almost insatiable appetite and craving for a life pregnant with excitement and full of changes.

In the end, few found themselves able to conquer their longing for a betterment of condition so far as fleeting pleasures are concerned. They returned to the farm to find that the broad acres no longer presented any charms or fascinations for them; that the labor of tilling the earth was dull, uninviting, irksome, and that their rural life was devoid of all excitement. The transition from army scenes to the quiet and repose of the farm was sudden, and few there were who gave the latter the preference in the contrast so far as to accept the situation. The large majority fled to the cities and country towns, where money was plentv and amusements and excitements obtainable. The statistics of agriculture and trade will ere long show the alarming consequences of their disastrous folly. The leading cities are gorged with labor, and thousands on thousands of able-bodied, willing men go about the streets penniless and idle, starving and distressed. Every avenue is closed against them, and they are confronted with but two alternatives—crime or farm labor. Too often the choice is made in favor of a criminal life, as the rapid increase of crime of late too unhappily demonstrates. But while the general outpouring from the country districts into the cities and towns continues, the great agricultural work of the country is left almost entirely with old men and women, who are unable to meet the increased demands for the necessaries of life made from the over-crowded municipalities. Labor with them is more than capital, and hence it is, that prices for produce range even higher now than when gold was up among the nineties. There will be no decrease in rates until the flow of young men into the cities is checked. Time will effectually accomplish that end. They will be starved back to the plow, just as soon as any material contraction of the currency may take place; as it is, now, they are undergoing the process of being expunged out of the manufactural and industrial centres. Their places on the farm cannot be supplied any more by city mechanics than can they supply the places of the latter, and sooner or later the country element of the closely populated towns must find its way back to the farms.

In view of these facts we cannot too strongly urge the young men of the country to stay at home. They are not wanted in the city. They should not abandon their homes for a life bordering on beggary and vagabondage in strange communities, where they are unknown and friendless.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCES.

During the war the saddest of all reports to the sorrowing ones at home were those that included their soldiers among the missing. When hope was gone, and the father, or brother, or son was surely killed, there was the deep sorrow of despair; but the very certainty of the loss sustained was a soothing remedy, which sooner or later brought peace to the minds afflicted. But to find a dear name put down as "missing" was to be plunged into the midst of the most fearful of all sorrows, the mixture of hope and despair, anguish and uncertainty, which is harder to bear than any other of the endless category of evils which fell upon man when he fell from Eden. When the war was over, the occasion for these awful trials seemed to be removed; but it seems that even yet they are as frequent and as harrowing as ever. A very remarkable epidemic seems to be sweeping over this country, a mysterious and awful visitation, which seizes its victims and whisks them away, sometimes never again to be heard from.

About two months ago Chicago was startled by the assertion that several of her citizens, had in one night disappeared. All sorts of suggestions were made and opinions expressed, but we have never yet heard of any trace of them having been found. Years ago, the number of missing men was less, and every week an illustrated journal, published in New York, would publish a portrait and description of one—a plan which often resulted in the recovery of the lost person. But no common sized paper could take in the portraits of all the men who are missing now. Boston has just been excited over the disappearance of THOS. M. HATHAWAY, a prominent and well to do merchant. Brooklyn, too, has names to add to the mysterious list, and Cincinnati papers offer evidence of the feeling in that city. The Enquirer lately said:

Within the past week our attention has been drawn to the startling fact that no less than three persons have mysteriously disappeared from their homes, and as yet no trace of their whereabouts has deen discovered.

Of these last, one was a youth of nineteen years, a clerk in a drug store, and the only son of a widowed mother. The second was a staid, well to do father and husband, fifty years of age. And the third was the modest wife of an elderly gentleman prominent among the merchants of the city.

Here are facts startling enough to cause a shudder to run through the nation, if times were less politically turbulent. But these are not all. When things are brought home we feel them more poignantly. Almost a dozen men have disappeared from the neighborhood of our own city within the last few months, and hardly a week goes by without new names being added to the list. Where have all these men gone? Why have they thus mysteriously disappeared? Is this the work of some unprecedented co-operation of crime? Can it be uncriminally accounted for? These are important questions, and they are vital ones to the friends of these absent ones, who are sitting heart-sick, and powerless to do anything, in their deserted homes. The empty chairs are there, but the sweet sorrow of weeping over the graves of the departed is not for such as these. Time has no balm that can soothe these rude, uncertain wounds; tears cannot give rest to the weary, straining eyes of those who are waiting and hoping and despairing of ever again seeing or hearing of those who have gone from among them. Many a sad heart has gone down to the grave, weary with waiting for the return of friends who were on board of the President or Pacific, ships which sailed from port and were gone forever from the sight and knowledge of the world, but now without the dangers of the seas, numbers have disappeared and still remain to be accounted for. The fate of the missing ones may remain forever sealed in darkness, but the authorities should use all due vigilance to discover a cause for the prevalence of this singular freak, mania, or whatever we may call it, which has so fearfully developed itself in society, to fill large circles of relatives and friends with alarm and terror, and to perplex all who theorize on the subject.

REV. J. A. THOME, a learned and zealous clergyman of Cleveland, has just returned from a missionary visit to Great Britain on behalf of the American Freedmen. From an interesting report of his labors abroad, published in the Cleveland Herald, we make the following extracts:

"He had great hopes, at first of achieving important results through the Anti-Slavery associations of England. But these, he soon discovered, were too dead to operate through. He also, at first, hoped to secure a portion of the unexpended "Lancashire" Fund, a fund raised during the great cotton famine. In this he failed. Earl Derby had the control of it, but none was obtained. The stagnation in trade, and the general distress of the poor, made all effort in England comparatively hopeless. Mr. Thome accordingly turned his attention to Scotland. In the Free Church he found a cordial greeting, and during the May meetings obtained the endorsal and commendation of that body. Thus armed, he was welcomed everywhere, but not until the Summer vacation was over. Some of the most distinguished clergymen and scholars of Edenburgh and Glasgow co-operated with him. Mr. Thome mentioned with special praise the Duke of Argyle, the Rev. Mr. Guthrie, and other prominent men.

Among the considerations urged upon the people of Scotland in the large mass meetings held, why they should lend their support to the education and christianization of the freedmen, may be briefly indicated such as these: That the work was not merely an American one, but demanded the support of Christian men everywhere; that England and America shared equally in the guilt of slavery, as also in the profits; that the moral opposition to slavery had been common to them and to us; that their co-operation would encourage a friendly feeling on the part of the American people; that it was a labor of humanity, and that the commercial considerations of the future should induce them to lend a helping hand. Everywhere there was ardent encouragement, but the general distress prevented but few large subscriptions. The Coates, Bros., the great thread makers £200. Mr. Thome collected in all about £1,500, or ten thousand dollars.

MR. SAMUEL SCOTT, formerly of Allegheny county, now of Tullahoma, Tennessee, sends the Pittsburgh GAZETTE the price of a year's subscription. This is the eighty-third year the GAZETTE has been taken in the family of which Mr. SCOTT is a member. His father was one of its original subscribers, and saw the first paper printed west of the Allegheny mountains. Ashe invariably paid for the pleasure of reading his news, not defrauding the printer as many do, the son, who follows his example, takes much pride in referring to his family record as newspaper supporters.

Another Iowa Horror.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil gives the following account of a terrible calamity, similar to the Dudley horror: "H. A. Terry, Esq., of Crescent City, brings us the horrible news of the burning of two children at that place last Sunday. It appears that a little boy and girl, children of Mr. Jacob Moss, were firing the prairie near the house, when the wind veered round, driving the flames toward them. The children were so frightened that they attempted to escape by running up the bluff instead of around the end of the fire, which they could easily have done. The flames soon caught them, and in an instant they were enveloped in its folds. Solomon Goodnor, a little boy of fourteen, was the only one near. This youth, with a heroism unparalleled in the annals of history, rushed into the flames and endeavored to rescue them. He succeeded in carrying them out, but the little girl's clothes were all in flames, and ere he could succeed in tearing off the burning garments, she was burned to death. Although suffering terribly—his arm being burned to a crisp—he carried the little girl to her home, nearly a quarter of a mile off. Such heroic conduct should not go unrewarded. The little boy is still in a critical state, although some hopes are entertained of his recovery."

—By a fire in a tenement house on Covington street, New York, Tuesday morning, damages to the amount of ten thousand dollars was sustained. Robert Miller and wife were taken out by the firemen, but were not expected to survive injuries. A Mr. Silver threw his baby out of the window. It was safely caught by his wife. He then jumped out and badly fractured his legs and arms.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

Close of the Legislative Session—General Measures—Laws for the Workingmen—The Civil Code Codification—Three Mill Tax on Personal Property—Bills that did not Become Laws—New Senate Speaker.

HARRISBURG, April 13, 1868.

The session of the Legislature is drawing to a close, and I take this last chance to sum up what has been accomplished by it.

In its list of general measures, the Free Railroad Law and the Registery Law are the most prominent. Both of these you have laid before your readers in full, and both, I think, will prove extremely beneficial to the State. The first rids us of monopoly, and the second of corruption at elections. These are results for which all of us have long and devoutly prayed.

Next in interest are the repeal of the Tioga Law, and the passage of the Eight Hour Law, and the law to promote the formation of co-operative associations. The repeal of the Tioga Law is general, and extends all over the State; the eight hour law is an exact copy of the New York law; and the law regulating co-operative associations authorizes seven or more men to form societies or corporations for mining, manufacturing, or mechanical purposes, and for dealing in goods and produce, with a capital of not less than $25,000 nor more than $200,000. All of these are important measures to the working men.

The codified laws on Foreign Insurance companies, Enrolment tax, tax on corporations, and tax on certain offices, were all passed. These laws gather together and render harmonious all previous legislation on these subjects, and the provisions of law concerning them can now be found in one statute, instead of hunting through dozens of them for that purpose.

The bill codifying the laws on the assessment and collection of taxes, failed to become a law, because most of the interior counties were opposed to any change in the present system.

The time for the revision of the civil code was extended until 1870. The legislature of 1871 will act upon the code which will then be presented; and it is to be hoped that, sufficient time having been given, the Commissioners will do their work thoroughly.

The general insurance law has been so amended as to allow fire insurance companies of the first class (as defined in the law of 1859) to be incorporated by the courts, permitting subscriptions of stock to be paid in lawful money, (instead of coin,) and allowing shares of stock to range from $10 to $50.

The bills to change the law of evidence, to amend the militia laws, to amend the jury law, and various bills to change the laws of practice in the courts, were all defeated; but the bill to limit the liability of railroad companies, and the bill to allow the merging of canal companies, which should have been defeated, became laws.

The bill to repeal the law authorizing local taxation on bonds, mortgages and monies at interest passed so as to include most of the counties of the State, a few of the counties refusing to have it extended to them. Allegheny, and most, if not all, the western counties, are included in the bill.

The bill to repeal the three mill tax on personal property did not pass; but one was passed directing the Auditor General and State Treasurer to reopen and readjust the accounts of the several counties with the Commonwealth, upon the basis of the revised assessment made by the Revenue Commissioners, reduced fifty per cent.

To understand this thoroughly it must be known that the returns of the personal property, made by the several counties in 1865, should have been revised by the Revenue Commissioners in that year, and the revision communicated to the several counties in time to base the several county assessments upon it for 1866, 1867 and 1868. This, however, was not done. The revision was not made until after the tax of 1866 was levied; and then it was made (and the assessments increased) upon an arbitrary basis which nearly all the counties resisted. The result has been confusion worse confounded, the State claiming large balances from the counties which the latter would not acknowledge to be due.

The bill now passed reduces the amounts fixed by the Revenue Commissioners one-half, and this vexed question will soon be settled. All penalties for non-payment of these taxes, in season, have been removed.

Dr. Worthington, of Chester, has been chosen Speaker of the Senate. He is a most worthy gentleman, courteous, kind, obliging and firm, and will make an excellent officer.

The bills to prohibit the granting of licenses in Finley township, to repay the Allegheny County Agricultural Society for injuries by State troops to its grounds in 1861, to regulate the fees of the Sealer of Weights and Measures, and to repeal the tonnage tax on coal and lumber on the Monongahela, all of which passed the Senate, failed in the House. The Driving Road bill fell upon a disagreement between the two Houses. The bills to repeal the road law in North Fayette township, to allow damages for opening a road on the farm of Mr. McCabe, in South Fayette township, and to incorporate the borough of Ormsby, which passed the House, failed in the Senate. Several other bills, the titles of which I cannot now recall, failed between the two Houses. That relative to turnpikes and toll-gates in Allegheny City was killed in the House.

ALLEGHENY.

CONGRESSIONAL.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE:—Many of those who signed the requisition on Colonel Phillips for Congress, will not rest after his declination in their efforts to make the office seek a man. As one of the many citizens who joined in calling him forth as a candidate, and as one who speaks for a large number of leading citizens, permit me to nominate Major WILLIAM FREW as a successor to Gen. J. K. Moorhead. He is a tried and patriotic citizen and a thorough scholar, and would make such a representative as would reflect credit to the district. Let it go forth that he is a candidate, and thousands of good citizens of all classes will join in an expression of sentiment in his favor.

AN OLD WHIG.

—At Memphis, about three o'clock yesterday morning, policemen Sweatt and Robertson encountered four negroes on the street. Thinking them night prowlers they ordered them to halt, which the negros responded to with a volley of pistol shots, seriously wounding Sweatt. Robertson commenced firing and succeeded in bringing one of them down. The others fled, and on Robertson approaching the wounded one he fired upon him, grazing his head, whereupon Robertson shot him again. He proved to be George Harris, who stated the others belonged to the crew of the Notoma.

—At Montreal, Canada, yesterday, at the conclusion of a eulogy on McGee, the Fenians were denounced, and the Bishop was greeted with cheers. A few people were badly crushed, and one or two run over in the great crowd. Secretary Seward sent a telegram hoping the murderer might be arrested.

In Memoriam.

The following extract, from the proceedings of the Allegheny Valley Medical Association in relation to the death of Hon. Charles G. Snowden, M. D., has been handed to us for publication:

Dr. Snowden has been an active practitioner of midicine for more than forty years, and was for several years an Associate Judge in Armstrong county. In Freeport, and the surrounding country, where, for almost half a century, he zealously and faithfully practised his profession, he was always regarded as a practitioner of more than ordinary abilities; and in all the duties of public and private life as an exemplary, high minded and honorable man.

Resolved, That we learn with deep sorrow of the death of our fellow-member, Charles G. Snowden, M. D., whom we regarded as a most eminent and successful practitioner.

Resolved, That in the character of Dr. Snowden we recognize that of a man of true ambition, of generous and patriotic principles, and in every respect a worthy citizen.

Resolved, That we most sincerely sympathize with the family and relatives of the deceased in their bereavement, and under so melancholy a dispensation we offer them our heartfelt regards and sincere condolence.

Resolved, That a copy of the above resolutions be sent to the family of deceased, and that they be published in the Armstrong county papers and Pittsburgh GAZETTE.

R. L. MCCURDY, M. D., Pres't.
CHAS. B. GILLESPY, Sec'y.

Letter Carriers Report—The following is the report of the letter carriers of Pittsburgh for the quarter ending, April 7th, 1868, showing the number of letters and papers collected and delivered:

	Collected	Delivered.
Mail Letters	124,164	246,075.
Drop Letters	11,461	33,171.
Papers	3,767	83,877.

Five deliveries and collections are made daily throughout the business portions of the city. One collection after eight P. M.

Assault and Battery.—Jemima Hatton made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Richard Roberts with assault and battery. The prosecutrix is the proprietor of a grocery in the Ninth ward, where she alleges the accused came, and without any provocation struck her several times and threatened to take her life. She also made information for surety of the peace. He was arrested, and after a hearing held to bail for his appearance at Court.

Another Disappearance.

Another citizen has disappeared very suddenly, but not so misteriously as some who have preceeded him. His departure appears to have been premeditated, yet, notwithstanding this, some of his friends are sufficiently exercised on account of his absence, as to send an officer in search of him. The missing individual is Charles Moritzon, fermerly proprietor of the Farmer's Home, in the Diamond. Monday morning it appears he resolved to quit business, leave the city and his wife also, and accordingly, disposed of his household property, pocketed the money, and left the city without even bidding his friends and creditors farewell. This morning Rosina Moritzon, his wife made information before Mayor Blackmore, charging her "truant lord" with abandonment. She was not the only one, however, who desired his return, as Mr. C. G. Wiehl also made information against him, charging him with concealing and disposing of his goods to defraud his creditors. Warrants were issued in both cases and placed in the hands of officer Herron, who is in search of the missing man.

The great colored orator Fred Douglas, will lecture to-morrow evening at Lafayette Hall. Tickets may be procured at C. C. Mellor's well-known music store, No. 81 Wood street. Mr. Douglas' style is original, vigorous and impressive, his words well chosen, his illustrations apt, and his arguments able and convincing. His speeches and addresses generally abound with sound, practical thoughts and suggestions upon the duties of the hour. Many who have heard the first men in the nation declare that he is second to none in anything that goes to make up a lecturer.

Western University.—The last term of the current year opened to-day. All departments, covering courses of a collegiate, scientific, commercial, and preparatory classical and English character, are ably manned. Applications for entrance, or for catalogue, may be made to Dr. Woods at the University building, corner of Ross and Diamond streets.

Vestrymen Elected.—The following named gentlemen were yesterday elected Vestrymen of the St. James Episcopal Church, at the corner of Penn and Mechanics streets, in the Fifth ward: F. R. Brunot. David Holmes, George Park, Wm. J. Hammond, Wm. Kyle, Thomas Rosewell and J. H. McElroy.

Burglary.—The grocery of Hanier and McMillen, of Washington, Pa., was broken into on Monday night, and robbed of eighteen dollars in money and seventy-five dollars worth of teas. No clue to the burglars has been obtained.

—At Cincinnati yesterday a fire broke out in the tannery of A. Bartling, on the canal. The building was burned, and with it the slaughter house of John Seifert, Thomas Phol's tannery, and the ice house of the Cincinnati Ice Company. The loss on the latter was $12,000, and on the buildings from $6,000 to $8,000.

—An astounding swindle on the Star Union Line has been exposed. Two prominent grain merchants in Chicago had, by forged bills of lading, succeeded in cheating that corporation out of nearly $4,000, and were in the midst of further operations when discovered.

—At Waukesha, Wisconsin, a fire yesterday morning destroyed Hill's block. Loss, $8,000; insured for $4,000. Buckner & Putney, dry goods, and H. W. Stine, grocer, lose about $1,000; fully covered by insurance. The fire originated in a photograph gallery.

—John H. Stevenson, of Boston, Clinton county, Ohio, was robbed of $9,000 by two men, yesterday, in Kentucky. The robbers have not been arrested. Stevenson was looking for a farm to invest his capital in, and is now left penniless.

BEWARE

Of that remorseless and insidious destroyer of the human race.

CONSUMPTION.

Check and conquer its advances, lest you fall the victim. When attacked with any of its preliminary symptoms, no matter how slight, be on your guard and promptly use the remedy ere too late.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is an old, well tried, certain and standard remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain or Oppression in the Chest or Lungs, and all Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs. Its sure and certain efficacy has been fully tested and endorsed for many years by numbers of well-known citizens in our midst, and their certificates are on record. Have you a cough which has gradually increased from a slight one to one of permanent standing? Lose no time, but procure a bottle of DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP, which will surely relieve you of the dangerous premonitory symptoms and effect a permanent cure. Do you spend miserable days and long sleepless nights of torture and pain from attacks of Asthma or Difficulty of Breathing? Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will act promptly, relieve you, and gradually restore you to your freedom of pain, and sound, pleasant sleep. Are your lungs sore and irritated, indicating inflammation? This is one of the most dangerous symptoms, and should be promptly removed. Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will heal the soreness, allay the inflammation, and restore the lungs to their prestine health and vigor. This Cough Syrup is pleasant and agreeable to take, while powerful and sure in its action. For sale by all Druggists in the country.

A MISERABLE SHAKER

Is the victim to Fever and Ague. This tedious and enervating disease is, unfortunately, too well known to need a description. It is strictly a malarious disease, caused by exhalations from the soil, especially from marshes, swamps and newly cleared lands encumbered with decomposing vegetable matter. The chills is one of the most troublesome of maladies, as the patient, though he may not be confined to his bed, is incapable of action. The experience of years has demonstrated the fact that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is a sure means of fortifying the system against all atmospheric poison, breaking up the paroxysms and rapidly restoring the strength. Quinine, which has so long been the great remedy for chills, has been superceded by this powerful and harmless agent; while as a preventive it is unequalled, as its use will certainly exempt all who may live in unhealthy localities from the ravages of this disease. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is now among the most popular, and, at the same time, valuable specifics in the medical world. In recommending it to the public, we are fully conscious of doing them a great service, knowing, as we do, their many excellent qualities, and sure and speedy action in all cases where the disease is caused by irregularity of the digestive organs. As a tonic it is both mild and agreeable to the taste, and stimulating in its action upon the system.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make application to DR. KEYSER, 130 Penn street, Pittsburgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop. JOHN SCANLAN,

Coal Bluffs, Washington Co., Pa.

ANOTHER CURE.

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to inform him of a great cure made by his LUNG CURE, or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE. Ilst these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipto of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

Lightning Rods

Munson's Copper Tubular Lightning Rod,

WITH

SPIRAL FLANGES,

Has been erected on thousands of buildings in all parts of the United States, and in a test of ten years no instances of their inefficiency has occurred. This Rod has received the First Premiums at the Fairs of nearly all the States, and every place it was ever exhibited. It has been endorsed by over one hundred Professors, Colleges, and other scientific men, as the best Rod ever invented, possessing all the elements necessary to protect buildings from lightning. It is made of copper, because this is the best metallic conductor, except silver, and does not rust. Its spiral flanges and rough edges dissipate electricity and double its conducting power. Electricity uses only the surface, never the heart of a metal. One flange of this Rod being open, the inside surface is available as well as the outside; altogether, its power surpasses twenty common iron rods or a solid copper rod an inch and a half thick, and has the additional advantage that it is continuous, and can never become disjointed or otherwise get out of order, but will endure as long as the building stands on which it is erected. Our points are made on the most approved method, and our Insulators are unsurpassed.

No holes are made in slate or tin roofs.

Our customers will have the benefit of our new Insulator, patented in 1867. The price is thirty cents per foot, and three dollars for each top; this includes the cost of putting the rod on buildings—there are no extra charges of any kind. Within the past few years we have erected this rod on many churches and other public edifices in Pittsburgh and vicinity, and upon thousands of dwellings and barns. For the superior character of this rod we are permitted to refer to Rev. I. C. Pershing, D. D., President Pittsburgh Female College; Philotus Dean, Esq., Professor Natural Sciences, Pittsburgh High School; Geo. Woods, LL. D., Pres't. Western University of Pennsylvania.

Thankful for the liberal orders of past years, we solicit a continuation of public patronage.

This great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from this city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with fine sand and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with lime and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of —The Chicago Evening Journal says: The leading banks report the money market close and firm, and private advices from New York mention the existance of a similar state of affairs there. Currency is in active request for the movement of grain, and owing to the lightness at the east shippers are, in many instances, compelled to draw time bills against cargoes now loaded —a condition of things in the present state of the discount market not at all satisfactory to those banks which have to do the "carrying." Rates of interest are unchanged.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Monday, says: There is thought to be a little softening in the money market, but the change in rates thus far since quarter-day are not very marked. Call loans as the rule are quoted at 8 per cent., with an occasional transaction something lower. Commercial paper is quoted at 7 to 9 per cent. for first class. The good banking houses on the street are not paying above 5 to 6 per cent. for money left on deposit. The bankers are accommodating their customers to pretty near the amount of the demand upon them, but only on good legitimate bills.

—From the New York Tribune, of Monday: Money opened quite active, and early in the day there was considerable inquiry, but before one o'clock there was an abundant supply of capital offering at 7 per cent., and borrowers at that rate than they could use. The bank statement shows a continued contraction, but the reserve is fully maintained. The next statement will probably show that the currency is returning to the Atlantic cities freely, and in amounts which will secure an easy money market at and below the legal rate.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFIFCE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, April 14, 1868.

CRUDE—The crude market was rather quiet to-day, which was owing mainly to to the fact that the great majority of the dealers have either gone, or are making preparations to attend the famous O'Connor and Tack suit in Philadelphia, having been suppœnaed to attend as witnesses. We have but two sales to record: 2500 barrels on spot, at 8,9-16, and 1200 bbls at 8½c, and 200 Smith's Ferry, at 8½c; these were the only transactions reported, and as will be seen, while the market is quiet, prices are without quotable change.

REFINED—Not a single sale reported, and while the market is quiet and neglected, for the reason above referred to, prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at 25c for April; 25½c for May; 26¼c for June, and 26¾ to 27c for July. The last four and five months sold on Monday at 28½c, and, we presume, that all the year would command 31c. There is but very little oil offering at present, as refiners are not satisfied with the prices.

LETTER FROM TENNESSEE.

Friendly Advice from a Former Resident of Pittsburgh.

We have received the following letter from Mr. SAMUEL SCOTT, who is an old Pittsburgher, now located at Tullahoma, Tennessee. The writer is a gentleman of probity and truth:

OAK HILL SEMINARY, TENN., April 8th, 1868.

MESSRS EDITORS GAZETTE:—Having been long accustomed to peruse your valuable weekly, from the earliest period of my recollection, and inasmuch as it received my parental patronage since the time of its primeval foundation, some eighty-three years ago, and being somewhat isolated from the home of childhood, I herewith send inclosed one year's subscription for your valuable paper, which you will be kind enough to send to Tullahoma, Coffee county, Tennessee.

A two years' residence as a citizen and farmer in this genial clime, solitary and alone among those who were once in war my mortal enemies, has certainly given me a good chance for observation and experience

The longer I remain the more often do I ask myself, how is it possible that so many farmers, particularly of my native State, (Pennsylvania,) can remain at home, in many of those sterile regions, when such vast fields, so rich in nature's bounty, stand invitingly open before them. Did they best know the need there is for them, and the certain remuneration that would reward their privation, it appears to me there would be an emigration South such as has never been witnessed on this continent.

I would drop a word in reference to an error, which prevails to some extent in the minds of many of our Northern friends as regards their personal safety. I came to Tennessee shortly after the surrender; I have been known as a firm Republican, or, as it is more familiarly termed, Radical; I have witnessed all the storms of passion, when, from the encouragement of the Presidential incumbent and his friends, the South was receiving aid and comfort, and secession was again blazing up with fearful vigor, and when my ears were assailed with vituperation against our Legislators that made my blood tingle. Yet in all this I have never been subjected to insult or personal indignity. In all my intercourse I have been treated with as much courtesy, and found men as honorable, as was ever my experience in Pennsylvania, my native State.

My family have been accorded as many acts of kindness, and our neighbors are as generous as were those with whom we were associated in other days. Our children have associated in their schools and we have met in their churches, and only by thinking of the past could we realize that we were among those who had ever been otherwise than our friends. The late enactments of Congress have produced an element that will ever hold in subjection the fiery zeal of the secessionist. None but those who have weathered the storm could believe how rapidly this prejudice is disappearing. All that we at present need is enterprise, energy and skill.

A revolution in agriculture must take place. The Little Bull tongue plow, drawn by one horse or mule, as the case may be, must be discarded, and the improved agricultural implements introduced.

Lands can be had at reasonable figures, and such a hand of welcome is extended, which few Northern men who have not visited this delightful country can anticipate.

We have as fine water power in Middle Tennessee as perhaps the world can produce. Pre-eminent among them is the Falls of Duck river at Manchester, our county seat, where the river falls some one hundred feet in the short space of one mile, thus affording facilities for manufacturing never surpassed and rarely equaled,, Persons visiting this locality will, by calling on me, six miles from Tullahoma and one mile from Concord, on the Manchester and McMinnville Railroad, receive any information that I am in possession of relative to the country. SAMUEL SCOTT.

LETTER FROM CARRX.

A New Railroad Completed—Pittsburgh Freight—The Snow Storm.

JACKSON, MICH., April 5, 1868

DEAR GAZETTE:—Having reached again that great salt and lumber mart, the Saginaw Valley, by the old anti-consolidation route from Detroit, I found a new outlet thence, some account of which may interest you. I mean the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad, just completed, connecting with the Michigan Central and Michigan Southern railroads at Jackson, reaching Saginaw City and all valley points via Lansing.

The enterprising management of this new enterprise deviate from the rule absurdly adhered to by some Western railroads, and accept Pittsburgh classification on all Pittsburgh freights, their fourth-class rate from Jackson to Saginaw being thirty cents per hundred pounds This, added to the rate from Pittsburgh to Jackson, forty cents per hundred pounds, allows the bulk of our manufactures to go through at seventy cents—a great reduction on old rates, and making this well built and well managed road by far the best winter route for freight. The liberal spirit displayed by this company, struggling as it is against a rich and powerful opposition, will, I am sure, be handsomely appreciated by Pittsburgh shippers.

The snow storm, of which you have heard so much, whirled through this valley in a style which astonished the oldest inhabitant, suspended railway travel, and made even the sturdy backwoodsman cower close to the fire all day Sunday. Far as the eye could reach was heaving and foaming the fleecy ocean, while here and there scant growth of pine struggled through the drifts—stragglers from the great pine army, retreating before Yankee axes, as the wearied grand army of Moscow from the nimble Cossack hordes. Sleighing has been almost uninterrupted here since early in December.

Two Children Lost—Their Lives Preserved by a Dog.

[From the Keokuk (Iowa) Constitution.]

On Wednesday two boys named Lynch and Nicholson, aged respectively nine and ten years, went to the woods west of the city to get a piece of hickory to make a bow. They wandered out so far that they got lost. In their bewildered state they searched about for some land mark that would lead them to their homes. While thus engaged, they espied a black lamb frisking about near them, and Lynch told Nicholson that he was going to catch it, and accordingly gave chase. In a few moments he and the lamb had both disappeared in the thick underbrush.

Nicholas, after waiting some time for Lynch to return, set about to find the way back to the city himself, which he succeeded in doing, and arrived at home late in the evening. Young Lynch, however, was not so fortunate. He wandered about in the wood till late at night, when he lost all hope of finding his way out of the forest, and laid down beside a log and slept till the morning. Being refreshed by his sleep, he again went forth with more buoyant hopes to find his way home. But he was again doomed to disappointment, and after strolling through the wood all day (Thursday), was again compelled to make his bed upon the cold ground with no cover but the blue sky. He had but just laid himself down when an unexpected but welcome visitor arrived to share his bed and keep him company. This strange visitor was a large Newfoundland dog, which staid with the little fellow till Friday morning.

A short time after daybreak the dog showed signs of great anxiety and uneasiness, and started to leave young Lynch, but he had enough foresight to follow the dog, and was conducted by the faithful animal to the road, where he saw a man upon a wagon. He hailed the man, and, after telling his adventure, was put into the wagon and brought to his home. The joy of the parents upon his return can be better imagined than described. After searching for their boy in every imaginable place where it was thought he could be, without avail, they had about given up all hopes of finding him, and there is a probability if it had not been for that faithful Newfoundland dog the child would have starved to death or died of grief in the lonesome forest. During the two days and nights that he was lost he was without a mouthful to eat, and his countenance showed plainly that he had indulged extensively in tears.

BOILS.

A boil is generally very small at first, and a fellow hardly notices it, but in a few days it gets to be the biggest of the two, and the chap that has it is of very little comparison with his boil, which then "has him." Boils appear mysteriously upon various portions of the human body, coming when and where they please, and often in very inconvenient places. Sometimes a solitary boil is the sum total of the affliction, but frequently there is a "rubishin' lot of 'em" to help the first one. If a boil comes anywhere on a person, that person always wishes it had come somewhere else, although it would puzzle him to say just where.

If a chap has a boil, he generally gets a good deal of sympathy from others—"in a horn." Whoever asks him what ails him, laughs at him for his pains to answer, while many unfeeling persons make game of him, or of his misfortune, or boil. It is very wicked to make sport of persons with boils; they cannot help it, and often feel very bad about it. Physicians don't give boil patients much satisfactiou, as a general thing, although young physicians who are jnst beginning to practice, are fond of trying their lancets on them. Boils are said to be healthy, and judging from the way they take hold, and hang on, and ache, and raise Cain generally, there is no doubt that they are healthy, and have good constitutions. They are generally very lively and playful at night, and it is very funny to see a man with a good large one, prospecting around his couch for a place where his boil will fit in "without hurtin."

Boils tend to purify the blood, strengthen the system, calm the nerves, restrain profanity, tranquilize the spirits, improve the temper and beautify the appearance. They are good things for married men who spend their evenings away from home, as they give them an opportuuity to rest their night-keys and get acquainted with their families. It is stated that boils save the patient a fit of sickness, but if the sickness is not the best thing to have, it must be an all-fired mean thing. It is also said that a person is better after having got rid of them. Many distinguished persons have enjoyed these harbingers of health. Job took the first premium at the County Fair for having more aches under cultivation than any other person. Shakspeare had them, and meant boils when he said, "One woe doth tread upon another's heels, so fast they follow."

There are a great many remedies for boils, most of which are well worth trying, because if they don't do any good, they don't hurt the boils. If a chap goes down street with a boil, every man he meets will tell him of a good thing for it, among which are—Shoemakers' whacks, Mrs. Winslow's Syrup, Trix, Spaulding's Glue, Charlotte Russe, Gum Drops, Water-Proof Blacking, Night Blooming Cereus, Chloroform, Kissengen, &c., &c.

A special meeting of the City Councils, called at the instance of the Water Committee, for the purpose of presenting a special report relative to improvements in the Water Works, was held yesterday afternoon.

Select Branch.

EXTENSION OF WATER PIPE, &C.

The President stated the meeting had been called at the instance of the Water Committee, relative to a matter which had been before the last meeting of Councils. He then read the following resolution, offered in Common Councils, April 6th, by Mr. Scott, and the amendment adopted in Select Councils the same date.

Resolved, That the Water Committee be and they are hereby authorized to make such extensions of water pipes as they may deem proper and expedient throughout the city, as now constituted under the new act of consolidation, and also to make such repairs and improvements to the present Water Works as they may deem needful, payments for the same to be made out of the proceeds of "Water Extension Loan Bonds," now authorized to be issued by ordinance, and the Water Committee are hereby empowered to certify for said payments in the usual manner.

Referred to Water Committee by C. C., April 6th.

In S. C. same date, adopted with the following amendment:

Provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be construed as to authorize the Water Committee to expend any amount of money beyond their appropriation, added to what may be realized from the sale of Water Loan Bonds.

C. C. adhered to former action and returned to S. C., who also adhered.

Mr. W. R. Brown moved that Select Council recede from former action and concur in action of Common Council. Adopted.

REPORT OF THE WATER COMMITTEE.

Mr. Brown then presented the following special report from the Water Committee:

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—The Water Committee have carefully considered the importance of repairs and extensions proposed to be made to the Water Works, and respectfully state that if authority be granted them, as per resolution submitted herewith, they deem it advisable to proceed with the following work without any unnecessary delay:

Lower Works.

A new engine and set of boilers, similar in size and style to the machinery erected at the works in 1866. One line of pipe from the vault to the middle of the river must be overhauled, cleared out and thoroughly repaired.

Upper Works.

A new set of four boilers, new boiler shed, and an alteration to engines, somewhat increasing their pumping capacity.

The total cost of repairs and renewals at the lower and upper works will, it is estimated, amount to $38,000.

Extension of Pipe.

From petitions referred to the Committee selections have been made as follows:

Cherry alley from Seventh street to Plum alley, 250 feet; Congress street from present pipe to Centre avenue, 200 feet; Crawford street from Centre avenue to Reed street, 590 feet; Mercer street from Webster to Whitesides alley, 160 feet; Whitesides alley from Mercer street, west, 150 feet; Wide alley from Fulton to Townsend street, 250 feet; Pennsylvania avenue from High to Tunnell street, 320 feet; Vine street from Reed to Colwell street, 268 feet; Miltenberger street, from St. Patricks alley, south, 150 feet; Peach alley from Pride to Marion street, 200 feet; Forbes street from Gist street west, 300 feet; Rose street from Grove street west, 250 feet; Kirkpatrick street from Duncan street north, 200 feet; Forbes street from Van Braam street west, 250 feet; Marlow street from Centre avenue to Chauncey street, 400 feet; Enoch street from Roberts to Granville streets, 540 feet; Miller street from Reed to Colwell street, 300 feet; Centre avenue from Erin street to Minersville, 4,750 feet; Pennsylvania avenue from Dinwiddie street to Brady street, 2,250 feet, immediately to be extended thence to Ward street, Oakland, during the summer, after repairs to works, distance 4,250 feet; Seneca street from Pennsylvania avenue to Beach alley. 125 feet; Beach alley from Seneca to Madison streets, 400 feet; Smallman street from Wilkins to Baldwin streets, 300 feet.

Lawrenceville.

To be supplied by two leading mains, one on Locust, Butler and Boundary streets to Penn street, there connecting with a large main to be laid on Penn street, from Smith street to St. Marys avenue—in detail as follows:

Locust street, from Penn to Butler street, 650 feet; Butler street, from Locust to Baldwin, and from Taylor to Boundary, 2,700 feet; Boundary street, from Butler to Penn street, 650; Penn street, from Smith to St. Mary's avenue, this pipe to be laid in centre of track of Citizens Railway; Boundary street, from Penn street to the lower end of Harrisonville; Foster's alley, from Two Mile Run, three blocks south of Wainwright, Dravo, Allen, Pike, Covington, Borough, Chestnut, Ewalt, Bellefontaine, and St. Marys avenue, from Butler street, north as far as they may be graded and improved; Allen, Chestnut, Bellefontaine, and Prospect streets, south of Butler street, as far as practicable for the lower basin supply.

A connecting line parallel with Butler street, to be laid from Bellefontaine to Covington street, and from Pike to Wainwright street, as may be requisite. The choice of other streets, south of Butler street, must depend at present somewhat on elevation. The Committee selected the streets most desirable and supplying the largest amount of population, other streets to be added as funds are procured and means of supply admit.

Summary.

The pipe to be laid will amount to nearly three and a half miles in Lawrenceville, one and a half miles in Pitt, one and a half miles in Oakland, and thirty-seven hundred feet in the old city, being a total of nearly seven miles—to be increased if amount of loan authorized by ordinance shall be procured in time to be available during the present season. The repairs to machinery are indispensable to insure ability to furnish an adequate supply of water pending the construction of new works. The cost of work herein detailed is about $180,000.

The Water Committee of 1829, in their annual report, state that the works were projected and erected for the sake of accomplishing two permanent objects of the greatest importance to the comfort and safety of the citizens—the affording of an ample and constant supply of good water and security against the ravages of fire. The history of the past 30 years has demonstrated the importance of the water works to the city. The wonderful growth of the new additions and claims for water privileges indicate that in the future the works are destined to become of even greater importance than in the past.

The population to be supplied by the additional facilities now proposed is more than equal to the entire population of the city when the water works were first erected, and the value of improvements in much larger proportion. As a business investment, it is wise, and for sanitary reasons being desirable, upon Councils it devolves to take such action as shall best promote the trust committed to their care.

Your Committee respectfully ask the passage of the resolution hereto annexed:

Resolved, That the Water Committee be and they are hereby authorized to make such extensions of water pipe as they may deem proper and expedient throughout the city, as now constituted under the act of consolidation; and also to make such repairs and improvements to the present water works as they may deem needful. Payments for the same to be made out of proceeds of the "Water Extension Loan Bonds," now authorized to be issued by ordinance; and the Water Committee are hereby empowered to certify for said payments in their usual manner.

The report was accepted and the resolution adopted. C. C. concurreed.

RESIGNATION OF MR. TANNER.

The President then read the following communication:

PITTSBURGH, PA, April 11, 1868.

Mr. James McAuley, President Select Council:

DEAR SIR: Living as I do in an adjoining county, I feel a delicacy in longer occupying my chair in the Chamber over which you preside.

My colleague, A. M. Brown, Esq., is so able and experienced that I feel the interests of my constituents will be well taken care of by him.

Wishing you, individually, and my late associates, health, happiness and prosperity,

I am, truly yours,

J. P. TANNER.

The communication was received and the resignation accepted.

THE MAYOR'S VETO.

The Clerk of Common Council was announced, and presented the opinion of the City Attorney relative to the Mayor's veto of the ordinance providing for the widening of the sidewalks on Fifth street.

Mr. A. M. Brown, by request of the Chairman, read the opinion to Council.

Some discussion occurred as to how the matter stood.

The President was of the opinion that the ordinance was dead by the action af Councils.

Mr. A. M. Brown held that the question of reconsideration was to consider the veto.

Mr. Morrow thought the matter dead.

Mr. Shipton offered an ordinance repealing the ordinance in question.

The President did not see any necessity for repealing an ordinance that had not been passed by Councils.

Mr. A. M. Brown held that the action of the Select branch did not bind the Common, and that after having passed the ordinance, unless Common Council concurred in the reconsideration, it still remained in full force.

Mr. Shipton's ordinance was lost.

On motion of Mr. Gross, Council receded from the action taken at a former meeting relative to the Mayor's veto.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT.

The President read the following report from the Finance Committee:

GENTLEMEN—The Finance Committee in the case of the application of the City Assessor for an increase of pay, desire to report, that after careful investigation they hereby recommend that the Controller be authorized to certify a warrant on the Contingent Fund for the sum of $800, to pay for assistance in preparing assessments and duplicate tax lists for the present year, the certificate not to issue until the work is done.

On motion of Mr. Gross, the report was accepted.

Mr. McClelland presented a petition for a gas lamp at the corner of Smallman and Morris street. Referred to Gas Committee.

Also, a petition for a fire plug on said corner. Referred to Water Committee.

Also, a resolution authorizing a fire plug to be placed in front of the Independence Engine House. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Cochrane, in place, offered a resolution authorizing the construction of an iron culvert in front of the Independence Engine House. Referred to the Street Committee.

The Chairman read an ordinance increasing the clerical force of the Water Works.

On motion of Mr. McClelland, the ordinance was postponed for the present.

On motion, adjourned.

Common Council.

Council was called to order by President Tomlinson at two o'clock. Members present: Messrs. A. H. Ahlborn, John Barton, C. W. Batchelor, W. R. Boggs, J. M. Brush, S. Caskey, D. W. C. Carroll, H. Daub, A. J. Davis, John Fitzimmons, G. Gerner, James Hemphill, R. G. Herron, E. House, C. Jeremy, H. Meyer, G. F. McCleane, J. Rebman, N. P. Reed, S. W. Reynolds, R. Robb, T. Rosewell, A. Scott, D. Sims, J. J. Torley, F. Torrens, J. Verner, J. Vick, J. G. Weldon, T. W. Welsh, and W. A. Tomlinson, President.

Clerk McMasters read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved.

The President announced the meeting had been called at the instance of the Water Committee, business from which would be presented in Select Council. If there was no objection, other business would be taken.

THE MAYOR'S VETO OF SIDEWALK ORDINANCE.

The President presented the opinion of the City Attorney in relation to the validity of the veto by the Mayor of the ordinance authorizing the widening of the sidewalks on Fifth street, as follows:

PITTSBURGH, April 14, 1868.
CITY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

To the Common Council:

GENTLEMEN: Your resolution of April 6th, in relation to the veto of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance increasing the width of sidewalks on Fifth street," and asking my opinion whether the ordinance is valid, notwithstanding the veto, has been presented to me, and I have the honor to give my opinion as follows:

The 18th section of the act of April 6, 1867, provides that "any ordinance when passed by the City Councils shall be signed by the Presidents of each Council, and shall be submitted to the Mayor of the city, who, if he approves the same, shall sign it, and if he does not approve it, he shall return it to the Councils with his objections thereto in writing, whereupon it shall be reconsidered, * * * or if it be not returned within five days after it was delivered to the Mayor, it shall be deemed a valid ordinance, and shall have full force and effect, the same as if it had been approved and signed by the Mayor."

In this case the Mayor, within five days after the ordinance was delivered to him, returned it to the Clerk of Council, with his objections in writing, but it was not presented to Councils until the 6th of April, which was long after the expiration of the five days, but was the first meeting of Councils after the passage of the ordinance.

The simple question is: In order to perfect a veto, is it necessary that the Mayor should return the ordinance to Councils in open session within the five days prescribed?

My first impression was that it would be a sufficient compliance with the law to return the ordinance to the Clerk of Councils, from whom it had been received; but upon a more careful consideration I find many reasons for a contrary conclusion, and am satisfied that it was the duty of the Mayor to return the ordinance with his objections to Councils in open session.

Among the reasons for this conclusion I will state the following:

First—A strict construction of the language of the act admits of no other conclusion, as it requires the ordinance to be returned to Councils and makes no provision for returning it to the Clerk. Councils is an organized body which is not represented by any of its officers.

Second—The object of the provision requiring the ordinance to be returned within five days was, doubtless, to ensure speedy action upon its reconsideration. If it were sufficient to return the ordinance to the Clerk or President of Councils, as these officers do not have authority to convene Councils, and the law provides for quarterly sessions only, it might happen that the reconsideration would be delayed for weeks or months.

Third—The practice of the National and State Governments in the matter adds force to this view. In both Governments a bill which has been vetoed is returned to the House in which it originated in open session. As the power conferred upon the Mayor by the act of April 6, 1867, is copied from that given to the President and Governor by our National and State Constitution, the construction given by the Governments should have great weight in determining the meaning of this act.

It is true, there is less room for doubt in reference to the duties of the President and Governor, for the reason that the Constitution of the United States provides that if Congress by their adjournment prevent its return, within the time limited, the bill should not become a law, and the Constitution of the State provides for the same contingency, that if the General Assembly by their adjournment prevent its return, it shall be a law unless sent back within three days after the next meeting. These provisions fix definitely the time for the return, but still leave the mode to be determined by the preceding language, which is almost identical with that used in the Act of Assembly in conferring the power upon the Mayor.

Fourth—As this act is evidently modeled upon the Constitution of the United States, and the State of Pennsylvania, there must have been some reason for omitting to provide for the contingency of an adjournment before the expiration of the five days. This, I think, is found in the proviso to the twenty-third section, which gives to the Mayor the power to call special meetings of Councils. This power was probably given for the purpose of enabling him to have the reconsideration of ordinances to which he had objections within the time prescribed. At all events, it obviated the necessity for providing for the adjournment of Council before the expiration of five days, by putting it in his power to return the ordinance at any time to Councils in open session, at a special meeting, to be called at such time as he should designate.

For these reasons I am of opinion that the ordinance referred to in your resolution became a valid law, because not returned to Councils within five days, as prescribed by the Act of Assembly.

Very respectfully,

J. F. SLAGLE,
City Attorney.

On motion of Mr. Batchelor, the communication was received and filed.

CLAIM ORDERED PAID.

The President presented another communication from the City Attorney, covering the following resolution:

Resolved, That the City Controller be and is hereby authorized to certify a warrant in favor of Edward Allen for the sum of ninety-five dollars and twenty-four cents, in payment of claim for paving sidewalk on Centre avenue, in front of premises of Wm. Ward.

Thackeray for permission to erect bulletin boards at the various bridges on the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers, and at the ferry landings, for the purpose of displaying bills and programmes of places of amusement. Mr, Fitzsimmons offered the following:

Resolved, That the Water Committee, while laying their main pipes, be authorized to put in branch pipes from the main pipe to the inside of curb on the division line of every second lot, the branch pipe to be cast iron not less than one and a half inches in diameter—the expense to be paid by propty holders. A Model Establishment.

Pittsburgh is very properly termed the "Birmingham of America," in consequence of her many iron establishments, which not only out-number those of any other city in the United States, but for many years have been more judiciously conducted, and more productive of good to the community as well as more profitable to the proprietors. This might be accounted for in various ways, but the principal cause to which it should be attributed is, that very generally, the proprietors are practical business men. Of this class is the firm of Carol & Snyder, boiler makers and manufactures of sheet-iron, oil tanks, stills, &c. Their establishment, which is one of the largest and most complete in its appointments of any in the city, is situated on Short street, occupying the entire square from Second to Third streets, a distance of one hundred and sixty feet, and extends back one hundred feet. It is a two-story brick building, in the center of which is a boiler yard about eigthy by one hundred feet. The first floor of that portion of the building fronting on Second street is used as the fitting shop, and in it is the principal part of the machinery used for cutting, punching and bending the iron, which is run by a thirty-horse power engine. The finishing shop is on the opposite side and fronts on Third street, where all the necessary machinery of the most approved style is found, which is run by an engine of twenty-five horse power. Between these buildings and fronting on Short street is the business office, in the rear of which is the boiler or tank yard. The second story is used for the manufacture of sheet iron. This firm manufactures boilers and tanks of all sizes. They are now engaged on a pair of boilers for James Wood, Son & Co., of Wheatland, Ohio, 36 inches in diameter by 60 feet in length, and are just completing a contract with the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company for 125 oil car tanks of 42 barrels capacity each. Within a year past they built an oil tank of 25,000 barrels capacity. We discovered in the finishing shop, nearly completed, three of Dr. Weddle's patent stills, 8 feet in diameter by 12 feet long, which are for the use of the Aladin Oil Company. In addition to what we have enumerated, Messrs. Carol & Snyder engage extensively in building wrought iron bridges. In the course of a year there is worked up in this establishment about three hundred tons of boiler iron; five hundred tons of tank iron, and from eighty to one hundred tons of sheet iron. The boiler iron used is of the very best quality, all stamped and made from charcoal hammered blooms. When running to their full capacity about eighty-five hands are employed; at present, however, they are working but fifty. The boiler and tank works are under the supervision of Mr. Frederick Rephan, one of the most experienced workmen in the city, and the sheet iron shops are superintended by Mr. Michael Reyan, who is also an experienced workman. The present firm has been in existence about eleven years, and is a continuation of the old firm of Henry Busha & Co., which was one of the first boiler and sheet iron establishments started in this city. Under the present proprietors, however, the business has largely increased, and it may now be considered the leading establishment of its character in the country. Messrs. Carol & Snyder are not only practical business men, but are both experienced mechanics, Mr. C. having served an apprenticeship in the establishment of which he is now one of the proprietors. Having a thorough knowledge of their business, they are enabled to conduct it in such a manner as to render entire satisfaction to their patrons and with profit to themselves. They are both high-toned, honorable and fair dealing men, and we take pleasure in recommending them to the public.

Groceries.—The attention of retail dealers who are in the city for the purpose of making a purchase of teas, groceries and produce, or who are filling up their stocks by order, is directed to the superior, fresh and inviting selection of goods in that line to be found at the very lowest rates at the extensive and well managed house of Messrs. McBride & George, No. 164 Federal street, Allegheny City. This firm has been constantly receiving new additions to their spring stock, and are now prepared to compete successfully with the leading houses of either city. Retail as well as wholesale patrons secure decided advantages in dealing at this representative house of our sister city.

The special private sale of boots, shoes and gaiters, ingrain, hemp, rag and stair carpets, house-keeping dry goods, cloths and cassimeres, at the mammoth auction house and salesrooms of Smithson, Vanhook & McClelland, Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth street, is attracting much attention and the store is thronged with purchasers. This stock of goods is good in every sense of the word and commends itself to economical purchasers.

Particular attention is directed to the really elegant assortment of new pattern Cloaks, in silk and cloth, plainly and elaborately trimmed, which has just been opened at the dry goods house of Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth street, and will be offered at very reasonable prices. Ladies are earnestly invited to call in and examine these latest novelties of fashion, and they will find the stock superb and complete.

No lady or gentleman should be without it. All druggists sell it at ten cents an envelope. Wholesale depots for Trix—B. L. Fahnestock & Co., Geo. A. Kelly & Co., R. E. Sellers & Co., Pittsburgh.

Leo Hudson with her wonderfully well-trained horse "Black Bess," is drawing very large audiences at the old Pittsburgh Theatre, and she is worthy of still greater patronage. Notwithstanding this great attraction the prices have not been advanced at the "Old Drury," but remain at old rates. To-night a very good bill is offered.

Died of a Broken Neck.

Coroner Clawson yesterday morning was summoned to the Franklin House, No. 255 Pennsylvania avenue, to hold an inquest on the dead body of Charles Gerberding, a boarder. Deceased was boarding at the house and at an early hour in the morning was found lying dead at the foot of a stair way, down which it is supposed he had fallen, from the fact that his neck was broken. He came to the house about four o'clock, a. m., considerably intoxicated, and started to go to bed, after taking a drink at the bar. The jury found a verdict in accordance with the facts. Deceased was about thirty-six years of age, and a cigar maker by trade, although latterly he had been engaged in peddling. He has a wife and two children living somewhere in Tennessee.
